

PATIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

As a patient, you have the right to:

1. Receive a written statement of your rights.
2. Receive visitors, subject to your consent, whom you designate while being treated in the hospital. You will be notified of any clinical restrictions or limitations if applicable. You have the right to withdraw such consent at any time.
3. Participate in the development and implementation of your plan of care, and if you chose, to have your family participate in your care decisions. As a patient you are responsible for following directions and providing information about your history or current condition.
4. Make informed decisions regarding your care. By asking questions, you can participate in your Care Plan, and you are responsible to let us know if you do not understand the treatment course of care decisions.
5. Care that is considerate and respectful of your personal values and beliefs.
6. Formulate Advanced Directives and to have the hospital staff and practitioner caring for you comply with these directives.
7. Have a family member or representative of your choice and your own physician notified promptly of your admission.
8. Pastoral counseling upon request.
9. Personal privacy. You will be treated with respect and consideration. You are responsible to be respectful in return.
10. Receive care in a safe setting and be free from all forms of abuse and/or harassment.
11. The confidentiality of your clinical record and to obtain information contained in it within a reasonable time frame.
12. Be free from restraints and/or seclusion of any form that is not medically necessary or are used as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience or retaliation by staff.
13. To accept or refuse care to the extent permitted by law, and to be informed of the expected medical consequences of such actions. In the event that care is refused, you are responsible for the outcomes and consequences of those decisions.
14. Access protective services.
15. Be informed about the outcomes of care, including unanticipated outcomes.
16. Appropriate assessment and management of your pain.
17. Participate in ethical questions that arise in your care, including issues of conflict resolution, withholding or resuscitative services, foregoing or withdrawal of life sustaining treatment and participation in investigational studies or clinical trials.
18. Expect responsible continuity of care, including the right to be informed of continuing health care needs following discharge.
19. Examine and receive an explanation of your hospital bill regardless of source of payment. The patient / guarantor is responsible for meeting the financial commitments to the facility.
20. Access to a Patient Advocate for assistance in resolution of complaints and/or to file a grievance when an issue cannot be resolved promptly by staff present.

The hospital has designated Patient Advocate. This person will act on you or your family's behalf. They are responsible for reviewing, investigating and analyzing complaints and making recommendations to hospital Administration for resolution of complaints. If at any time you wish to speak to our Patient Advocate, you can dial "0" from a hospital phone and ask for the Patient Advocate, or contact them at the address listed below:
